1973

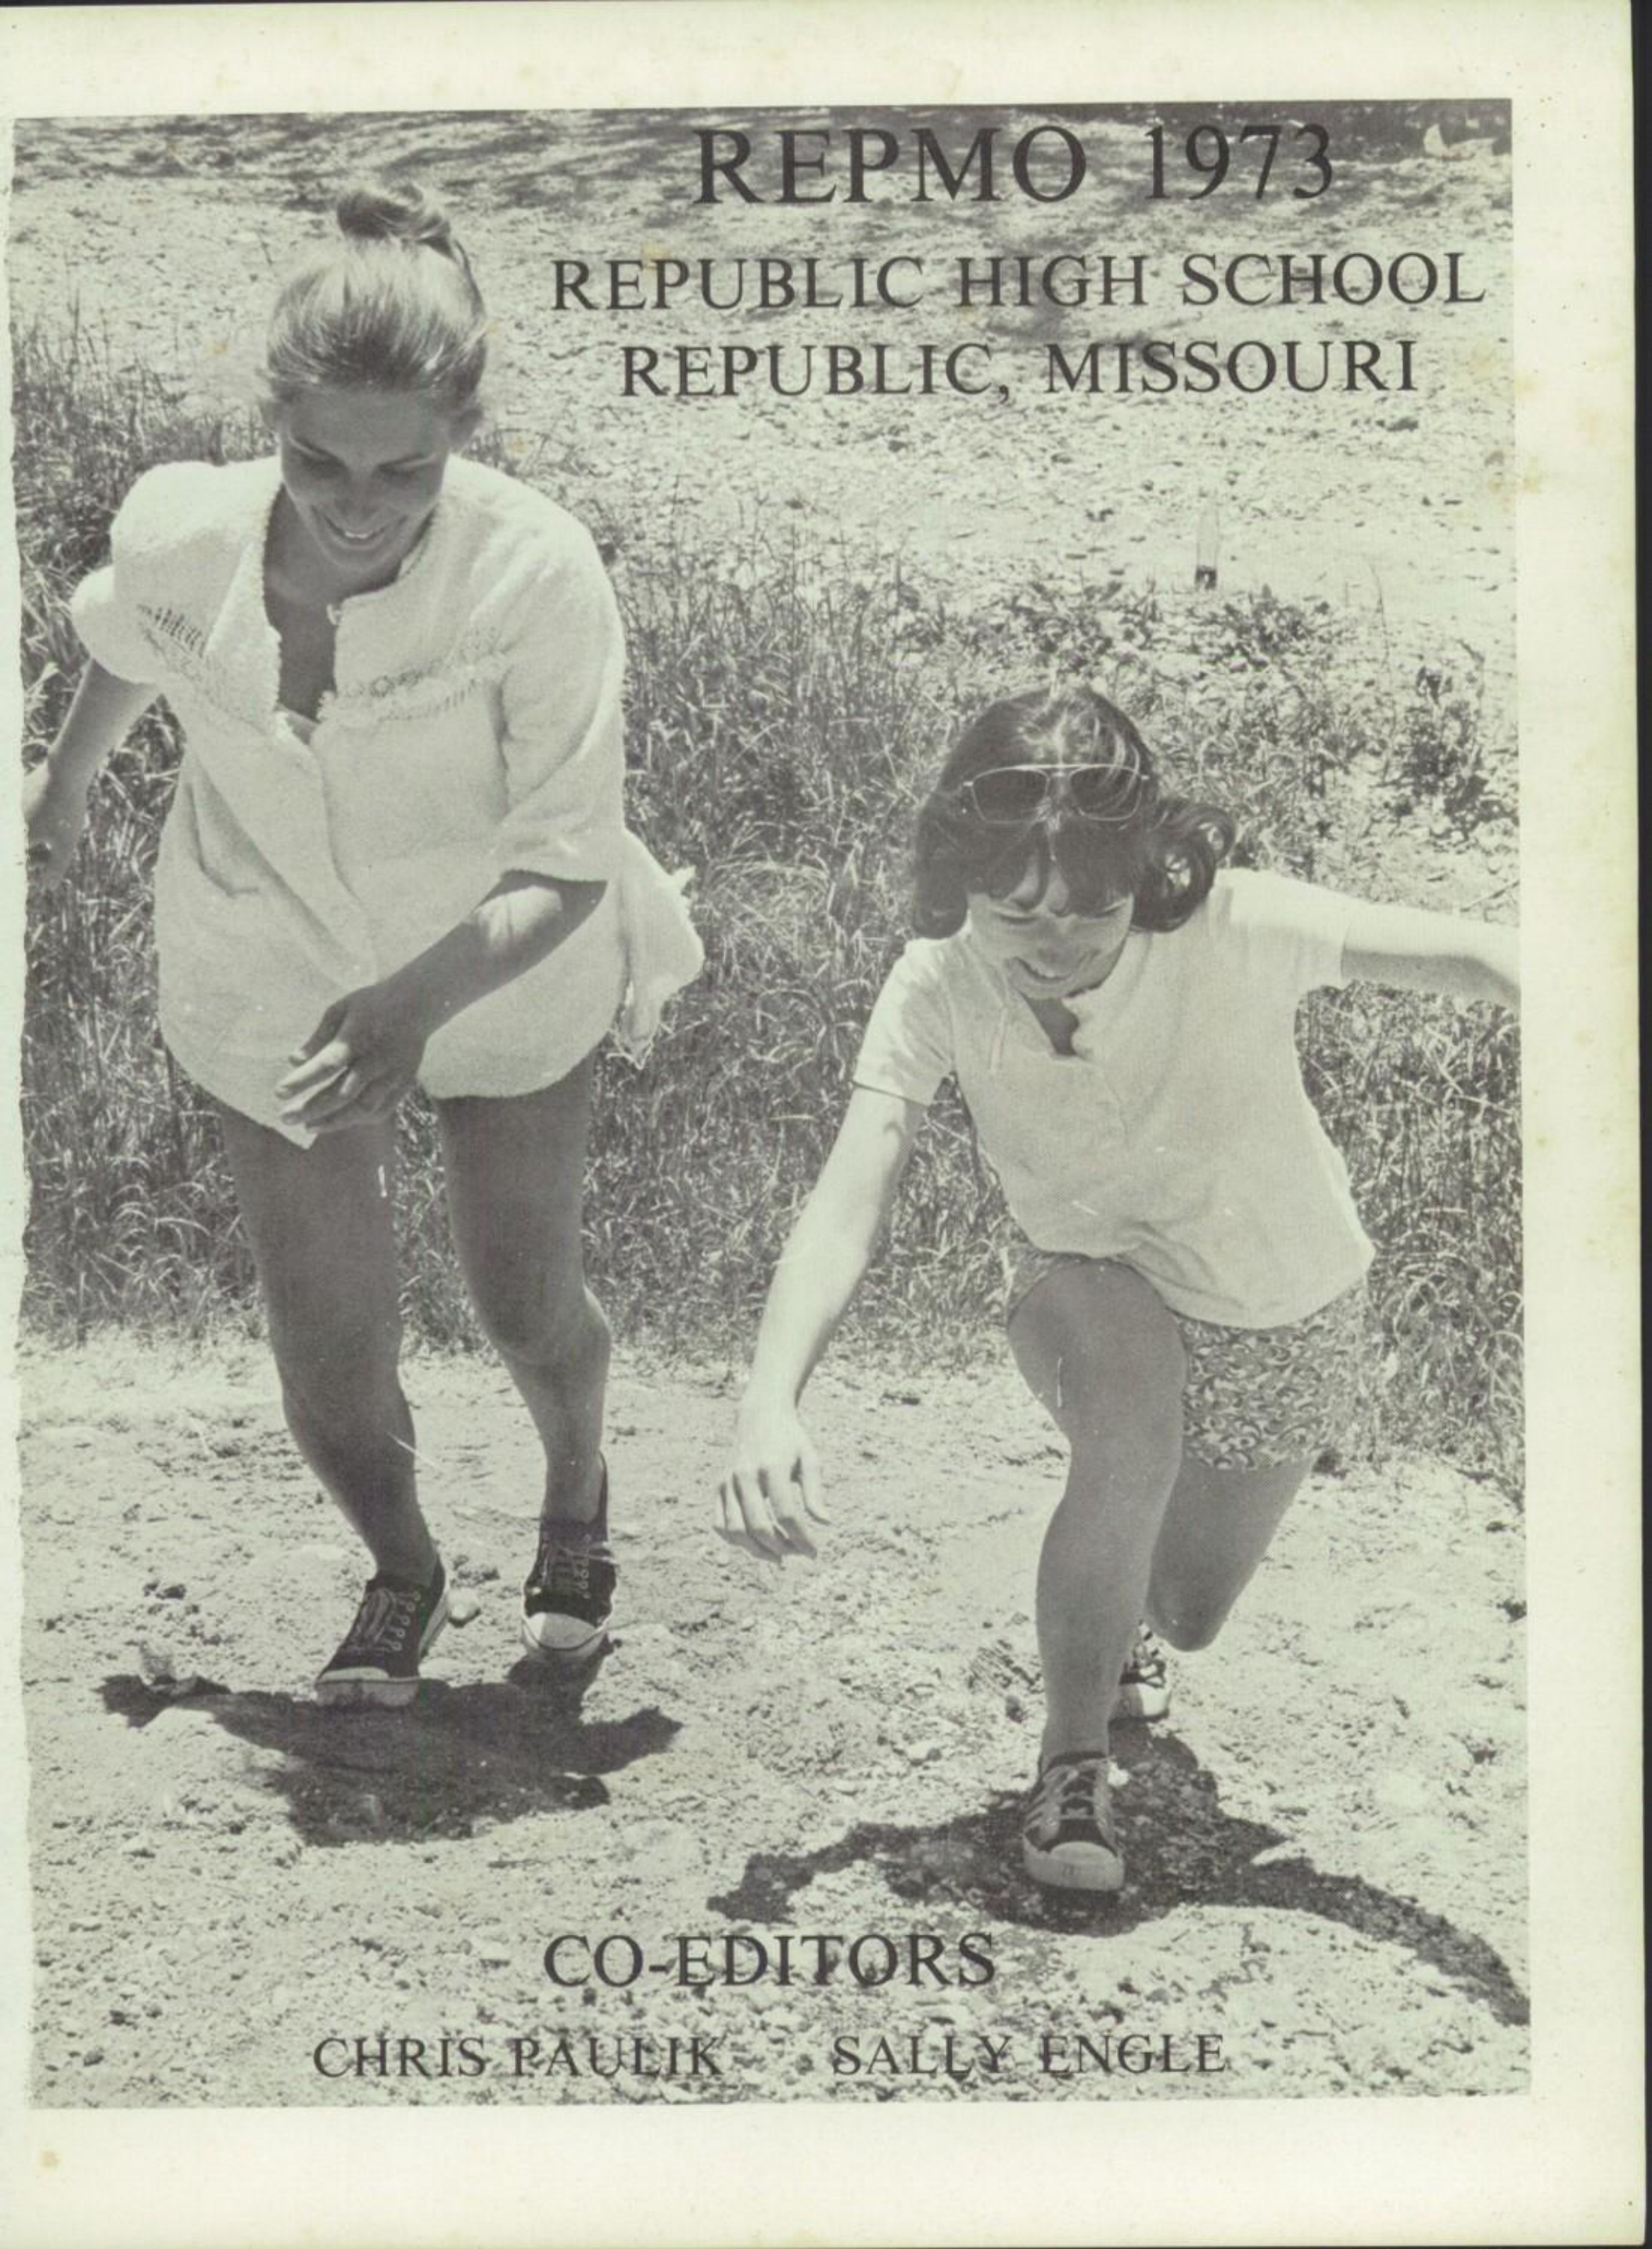

Pam, I've been thinking about you since we were all in grad school and we don't even have a house. I tried to reach out to you a while back but I was too busy. I'm sorry I didn't do that sooner. I hope you're doing well. I've been thinking about you a lot lately. I hope you're happy. I've been thinking about you a lot lately. I hope you're happy. I've been thinking about you a lot lately. I hope you're happy.

Leaders

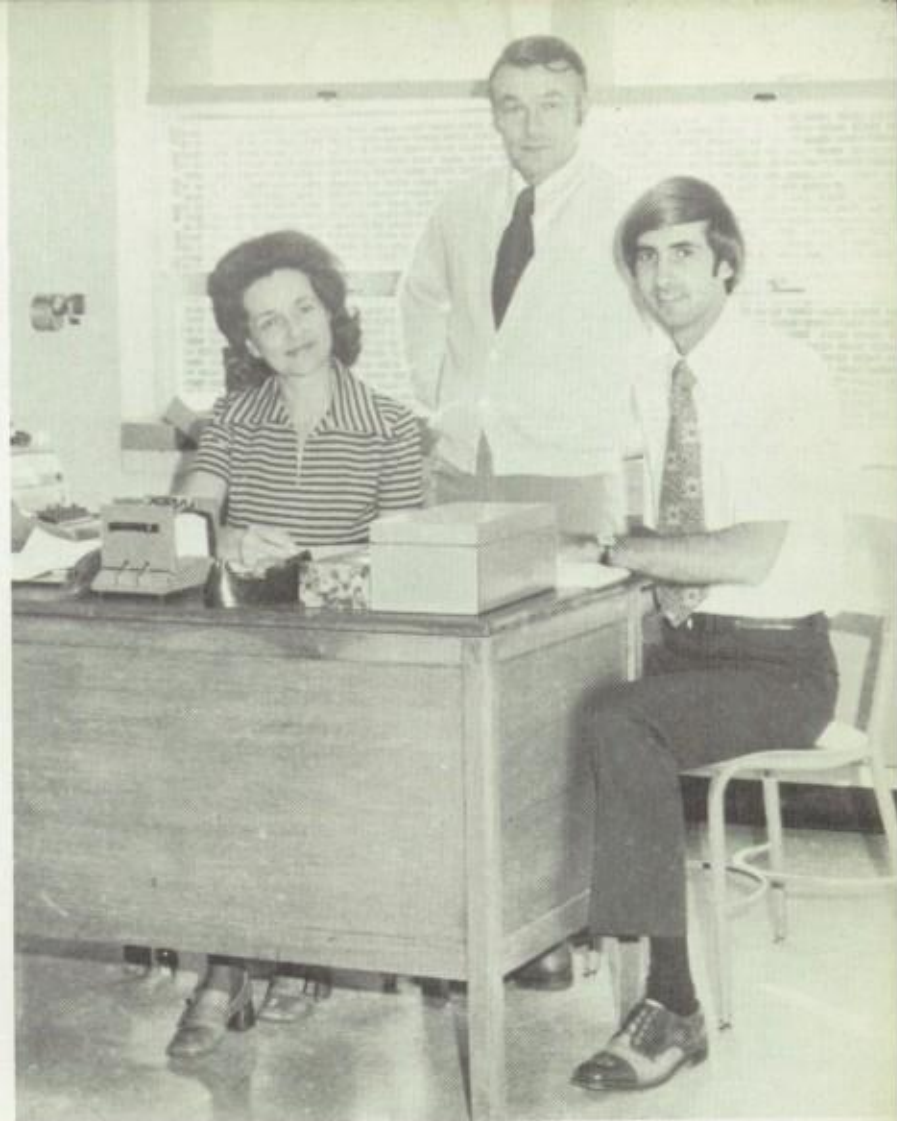

Superintendent William Schatz headed the administrative body for the 1972-73 school year. Donald Farwell, principal, acts as a liason between high school students, faculty, and administration. Administrative assistant is Marvin Bridges.

Running an answering service and keeping the books are just two of the many jobs the secretaries, Mrs. Floried Mount and Mrs. Sue Brown, assume.

Set Direction

Principal Jack Clingan has a busy life keeping up with the many activities and rambunctious kids of middle school. Assisting him is secretary Mrs. Madge Blades and counselor Charles Brashears.

Acting as grade school principal, Mrs. Geneva Evans contends with children ranging from kindergarten to fourth grade. Also pictured is secretary Joanna Clouse.

Vital Services

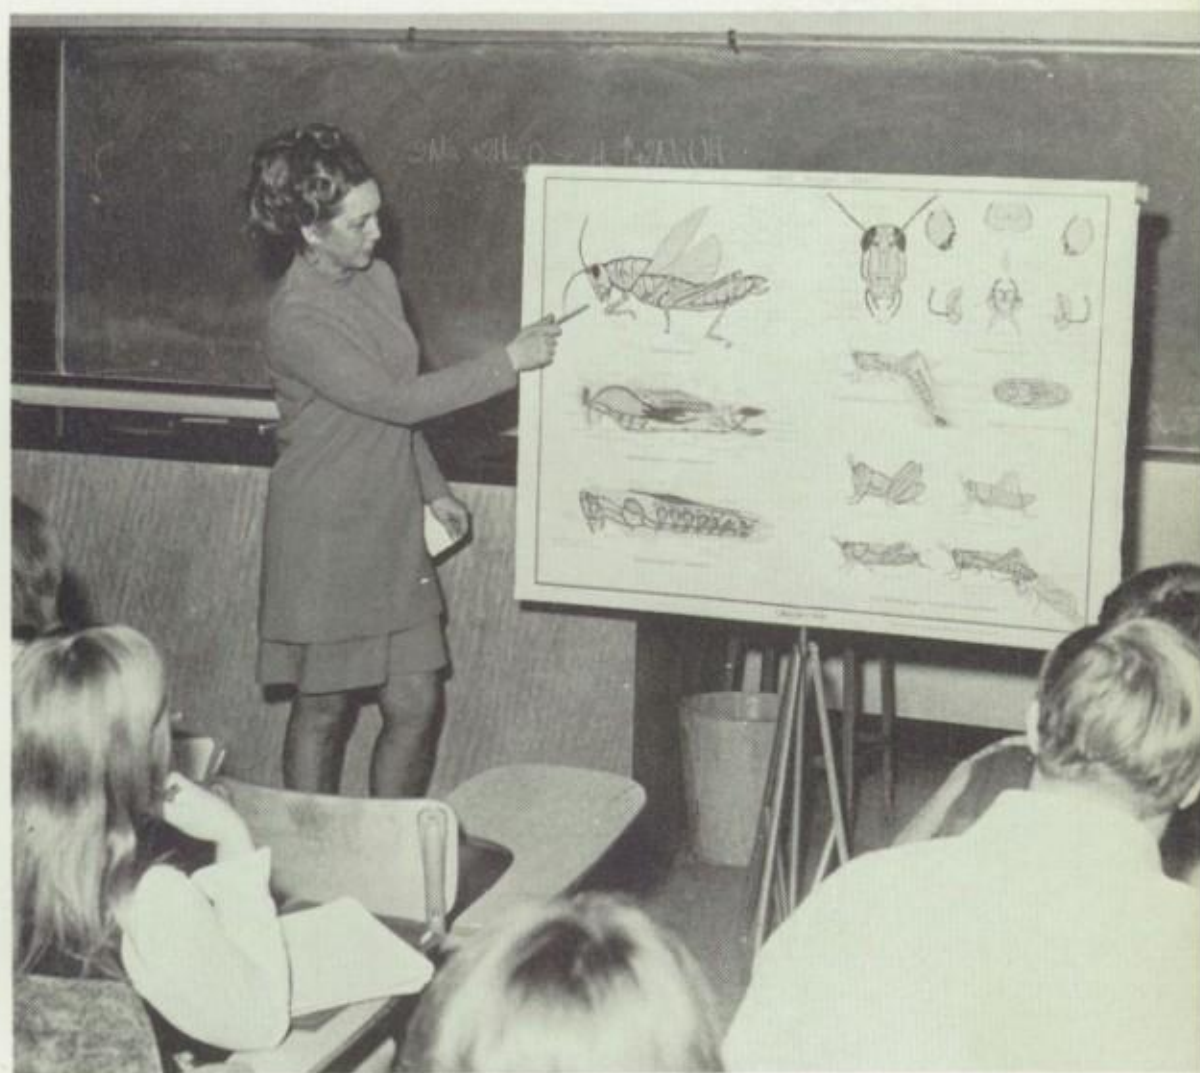

Keeping the grade school clean, above, is an important job. Mr. Pierce, a janitor at the high school, takes a breather, while Thelma Dorrell washes up after the busy noon hour.

English I & II

Above: Mrs. Stockton instructs her French I class in the basics of the French language. The class also learns something about the French people and the customs in France. "Habla usted Espanol?" (Do you speak Spanish?) This is one of the many phrases first year Spanish students learn. Above right: Mrs. Stockton converses with two of her Spanish II students. The Spanish I & II classes were combined this year. Right: Mrs. Andrus leads her English IV students in a discussion of Pope's epigrams. English IV, a college prep course, is a study of early English literature. Mrs. Arndt illustrates a point to her English II class.

Communications: Languages Add Culture to Student's Lives

Left: Mrs. Hancock and her class listen attentively as a student gives a special report. Below: Mrs. Mitchell teaches her English I class good grammar techniques. Left: Mrs. Ray discusses the Shakespeare play MACBETH with her English IV students. Miss Gallion's English II class analyzes a short story in their literature book.

Vocational Agriculture Teaches About Farm Life

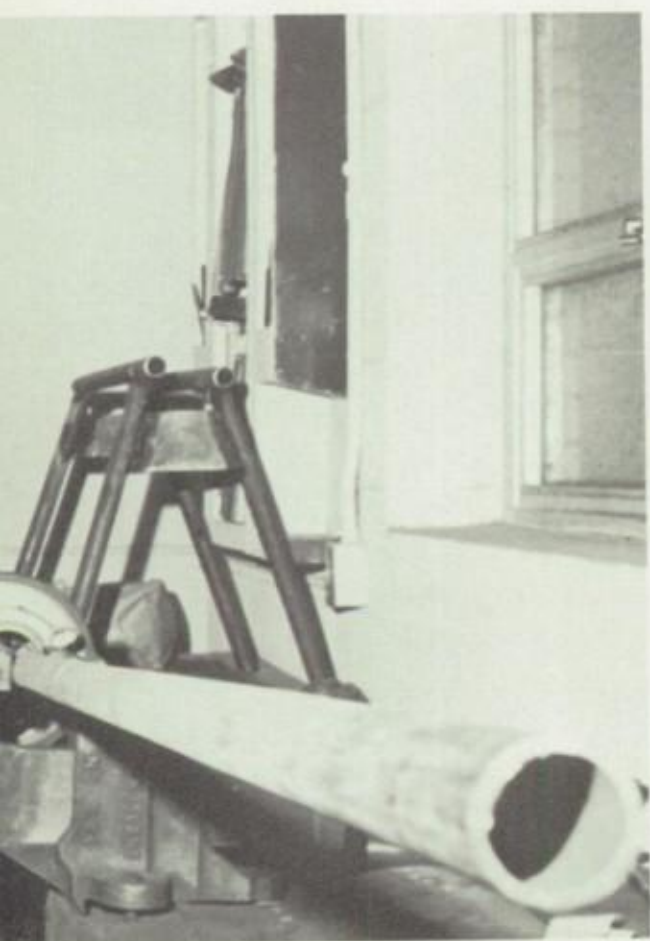

Many things are taught in Vo. Ag., such as animal breeding, crop production, and farm mechanics. Ernie Giddens, Alex Hamilton, Lynn McElhany, Alan Mooneyham, and Don Sparkman copy some notes off the board. Ed Sheppard and Mike Mishler ask Mr. Mount about an example of electrical wiring. From looking at the picture it looks like Bill McNabb is saying to Bob Wimmer, "Gee Bob, I didn't mean to break it!" Tommy Howell and Mike Day are working on a loading chute. Larry Day pulls a nail from a runner leg for a feed bunk in the shop of the Vocational Ag. Building in fourth hour. Third hour Vocational Agriculture class listen to Mr. Mount give a lecture on crop production. Vocational Agriculture can help you learn more about farm living and farm mechanics and management. The class goes to Mt. Vernon to tour the Southwest Center Farm.

Linda K. Gammel—BS degree from Evangel College, Gen. Science, Chemistry.

Doris Gragg—BS in Education from SMS, Biology I, and Gen. Science.

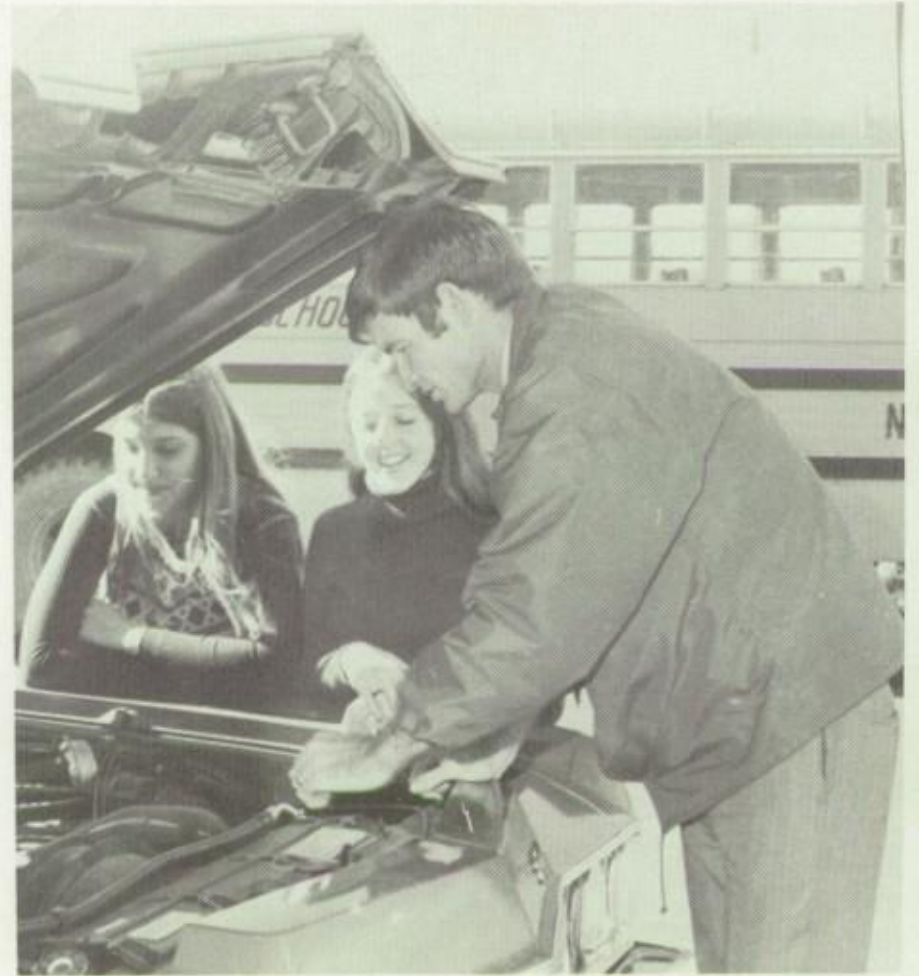

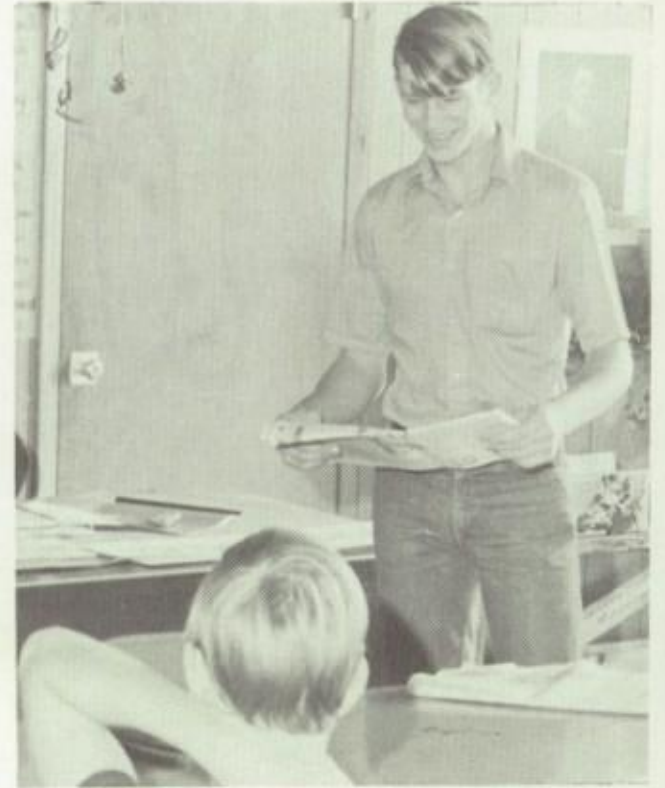

Safety Stressed in Dr. Ed.

Lewis Beaver reads his newspaper article, as Roger Fisk looks on. Mr. Larry Carter, who instructs Drivers Education explains to Brenda Graf and Jana Blades how an engine works. Roy Hagewood adjusts his outside mirror while preparing to extend his knowledge of driving. Mr. Carter looks at Roger Fisk's article for the day, as Lewis Beaver and Ronald Atkinson watch. Dr. Ed students listen attentively as Joanna Billingsly reads a passage from their books.

Mathematics: Struggling, Learning . . .

Mr. Hubert Smith, shown at left, has a BS in Education, majoring in Mathematics. Below, Mrs. Linda Gammel teaches first hour Math I. Mrs. Gammel holds a BS degree from Evangel College. Below left, Algebra II students listen attentively as their instructor explains a difficult problem. Mrs. Thora Duffield, at bottom left, reads the daily announcements to her first hour class. Mrs. Duffield holds a BA in Mathematics from Drury College. Below right, Geometry students relax for a few moments before class starts as roll is being taken.

Mrs. Schaumann instructs all Home Economics courses, including Home Ec. I and II, Advanced Foods and Clothing, and Child Care. She holds a B.S. in Education, Sponsors FHA and the Junior Class.

Experience Is Vocational

Gained from Courses

Steve Brown fills out an order form as David Young waits patiently to speak to Mr. Mason.

Building cabinets, gun racks, furniture, welding, etc. are just a few of the skills taught in General Shop classes. Electrical Maintenance and Small Engines Classes offer valuable knowledge to the students in the electronics field.

Mr. Hillhouse and Steve Brown inspect the metal lathe to find out what seems to be the problem.

Mr. Ermen Hillhouse holds a B.S. in Education from SMSU. He instructs three General Shop classes and two Woodworking courses. Mr. Hillhouse is also qualified to teach Metals, Drafting and Electronics courses.

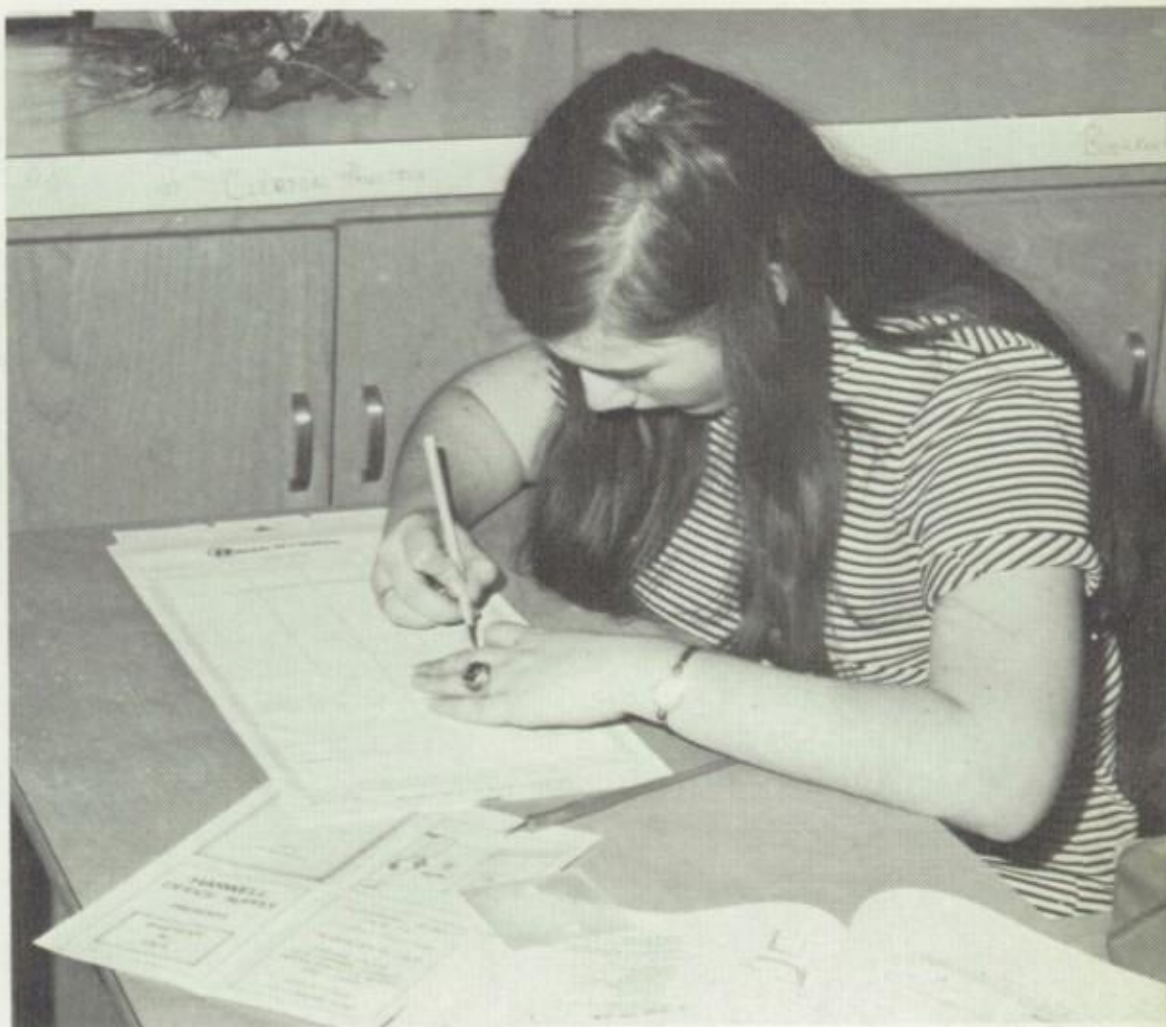

Mr. W. L. Mason has a B.S. from SMSU in Industrial Education. Mr. Mason teaches classes in Woods, Metals, Electrical Maintenance and Small Engines.

Electronic Age Demands More

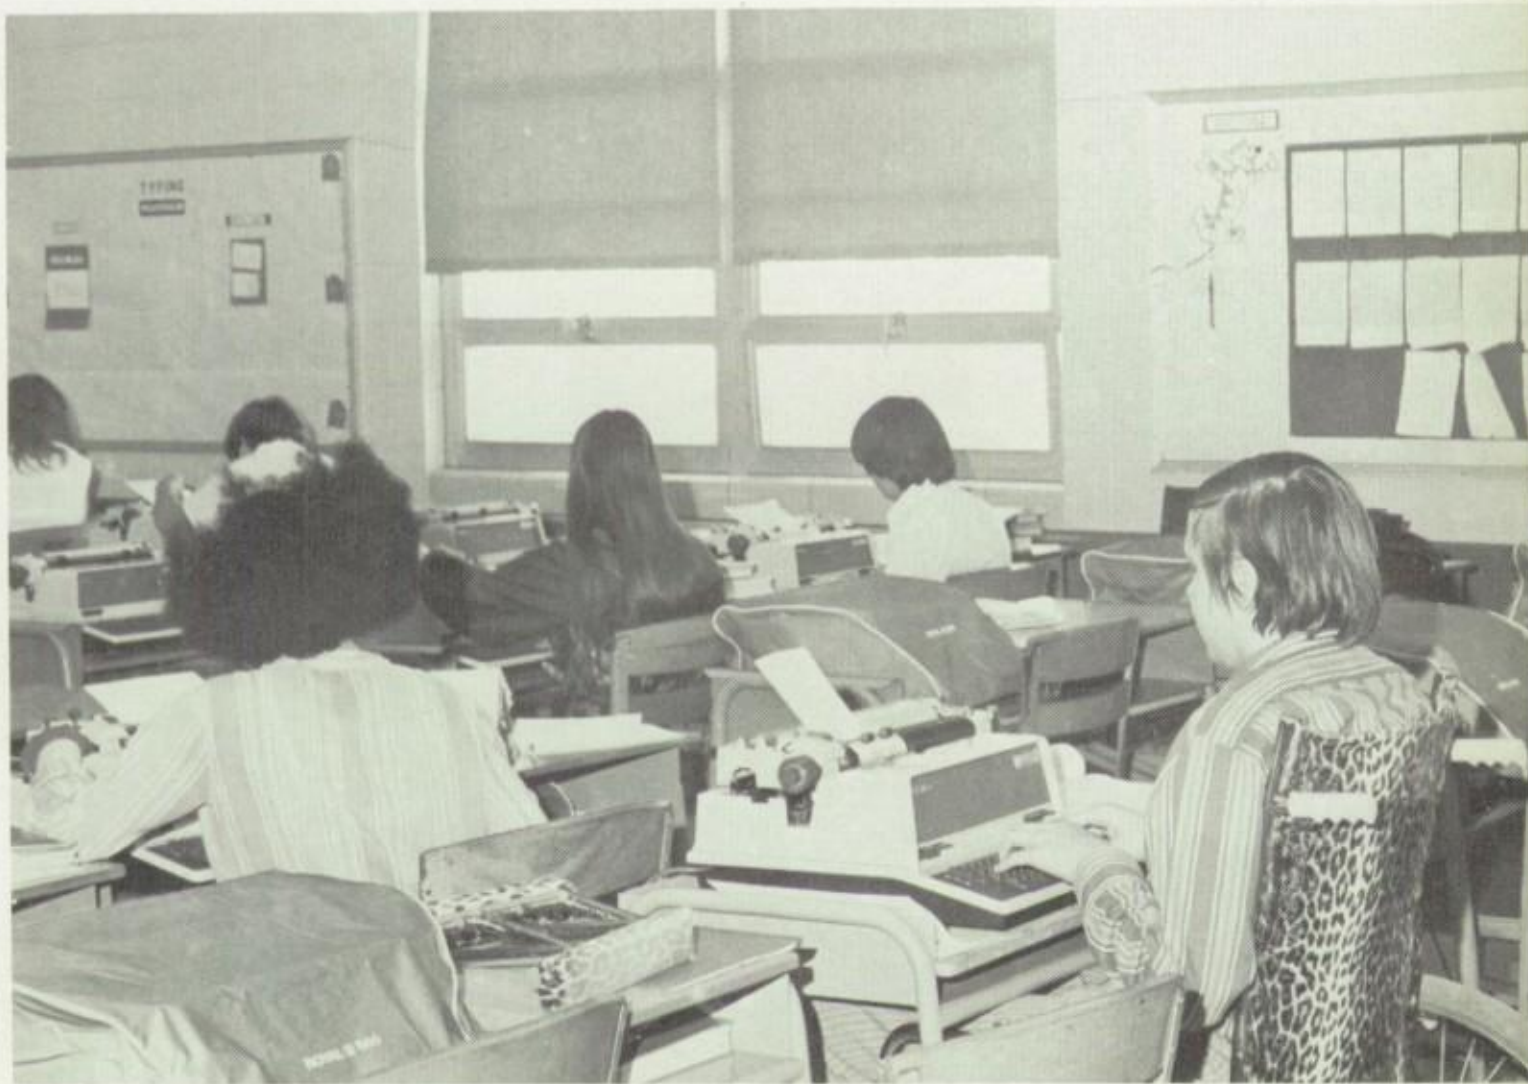

Business classes now demand a great deal of time and attention to learn the many skills and procedures necessary for office jobs; the students pictured are engrossed in this learning process.

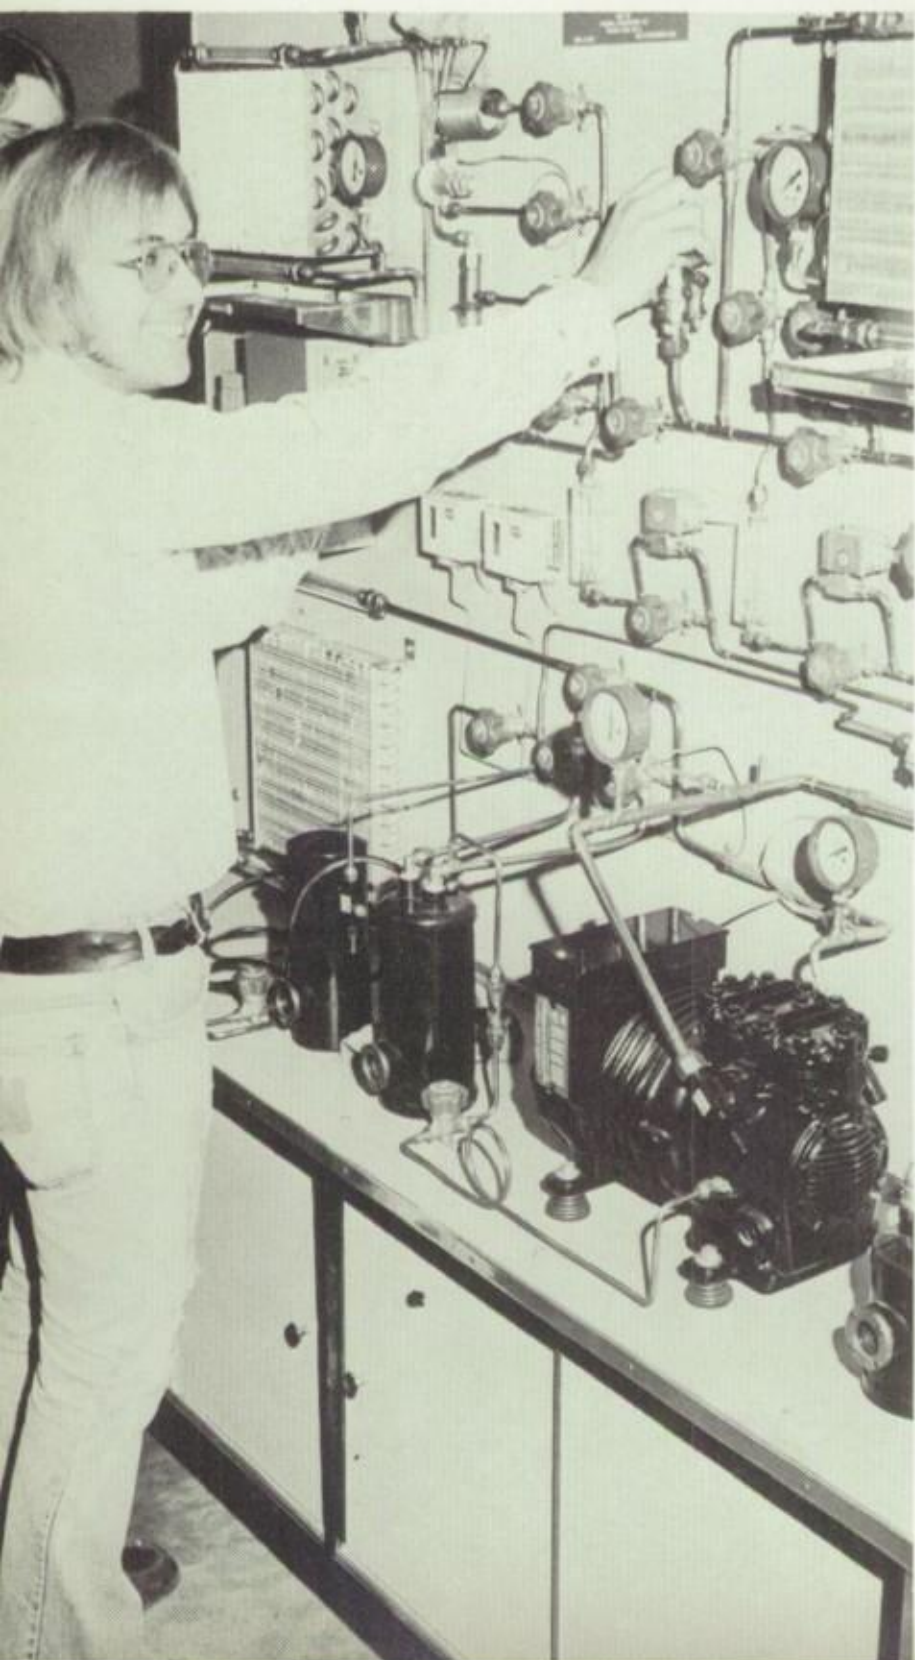

Mrs. Linda Oldham, graduated from SMS with a B.S. in Business Education, guides and directs students in Bookkeeping I and Clerical Practice. She also has a Missouri Vocational Certificate. Miss Claudia Crumrine, who holds a B.S. in Edu-

Vo. Tech. Courses Expand Knowledge

Above Jack Bridges, Rob Boyer, and Blake Simmons are using the library's resource facilities to aid them in their reports.

Girls' Counselor Added to Staff

There are always students who have problems, whether they be social or academic. Mrs. Gibson and Mr. Klingebiel, counselors at RHS, are always ready to help the student. Below, they take time to pose for the camera.

Plan A Career is the theme of this bulletin board. It is also one of the concerns guidance counselors have with the student.

End of the Line For Class of '73'

here leaving graduation practice, the seniors prepare to start their senior week—left. At bottom center and directly below, the Class of '73' is shown having fun in the sun at Table Rock Lake. Don Shore receives the Shop Award from Mr. Mason at the annual Honor Assembly—below bottom.

Top Ten Triumph

After seven long semesters, academic standing for the 1973 senior class was tabulated. The Top Ten are pictured at right. Despite all their accumulated knowledge, they seem a bit confused about which is the boys' restroom and which is the girls'.

Donna Link, valedictorian, and Susan Roller, salutatorian, are captured below pursuing some of their interests. Both girls plan to further their educations at SMSU.

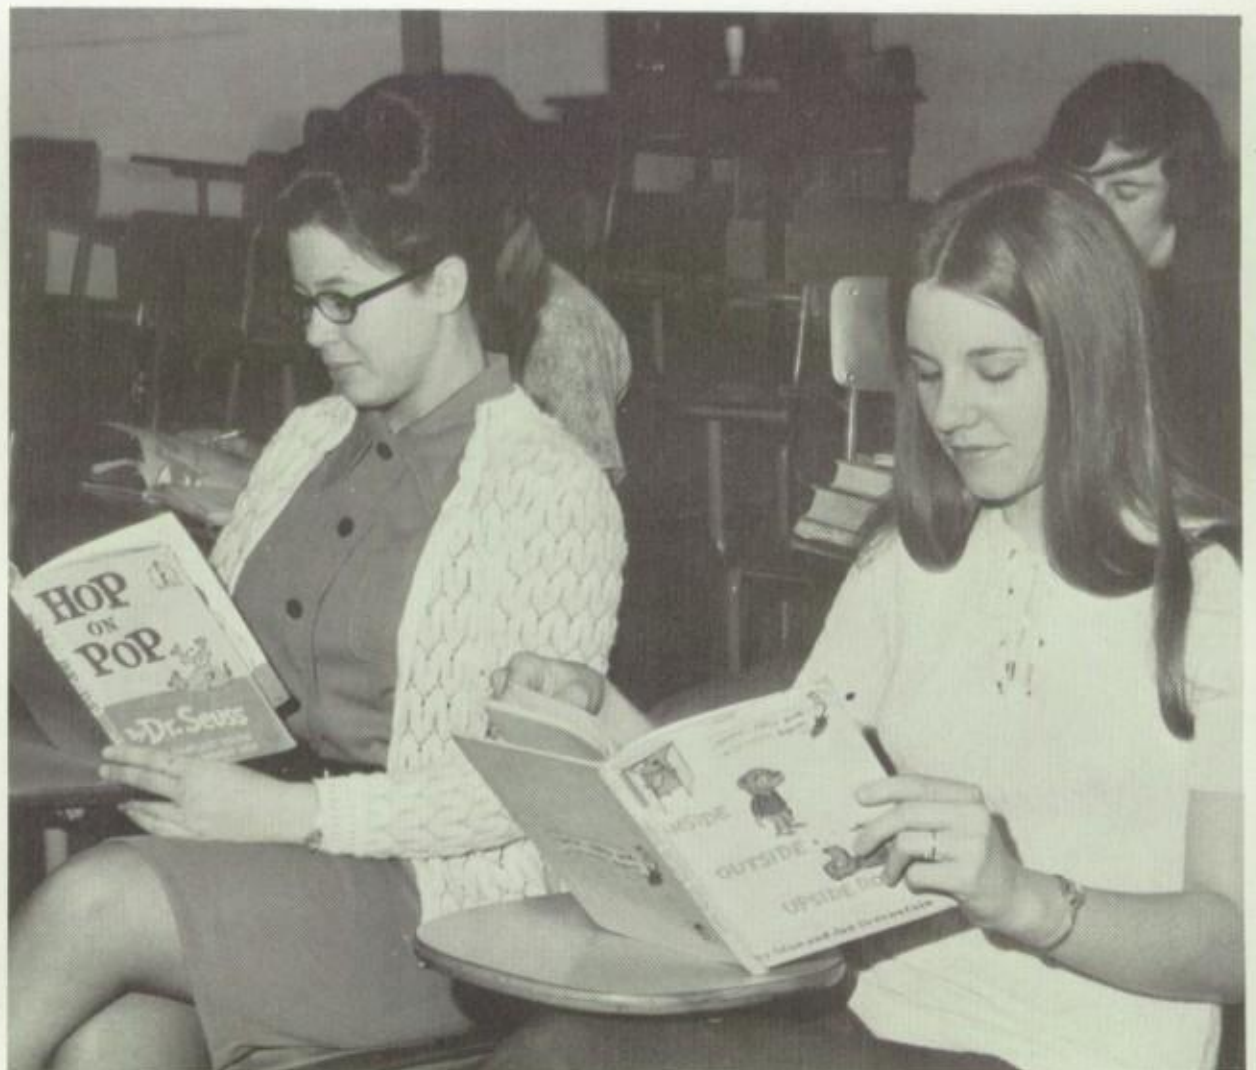

Donna is interested in the field of business. She is pictured using the Norelco transcriber in Clerical Practice. Other classes she has taken include typing, shorthand, and book-keeping.

Susan, whose primary interests are English and art, is shown experimenting with acrylic paints in Art II. She has taken the two art classes which are offered and is a member of Art Club. Susan also served on the Repmo and Tiger Tracks staffs.

The Top Ten for 1973: David, Neil, Tom, Gary, Rick, Mary Ann, Pam, Susan, Becky, and Donna.

Grade point averages, which were computed by the counselors, are as follows:

Donna Link	10.57	David Campbell	10.09
Susan Roller	10.52	Pam Goodall	10.02
Gary Etheridge	10.33	Neil Ramsey	9.91
Tom Burks	10.28	Rick Clark	9.87
Mary Ann O'Neal	10.10	Becky Wilkinson	9.81

Heading the Junior Class for the 72-73 school year are President Christi Stark, Vice-President Lyn Bennett, Secretary Larry Chism, Treasurer Larry Day, and Historian Lois Jones. One of the biggest achievements of the Junior Class this year was outselling all other Junior Classes of previous years in magazine sales. Peggy Mooneyham, lower left, was top magazine salesman with a total of $512. Her main prize included a tape player and speakers. Other students who also sold over a hundred dollars worth of magazines are Beverly Pittman, Sharon McConnell, Elise Rader, Kathy Lawrence, Christi Stark, and Linda Viles.

Jr. High Faculty and Students Work

The Jr. High students receive special guidance this year from the expanding staff. Janet Howell, below, gives individual help to students as a Speech Therapist. Coetta Bradley, right, helps a student to perform an experiment in one of her Science classes. At bottom

Above, Richard Andrews stops to get a drink before returning to his Math class. At left, Terry Noland works at his desk on a new football play. Mr. Noland is coach of the Jr. High football teams and track teams. He is also assistant manager of the High School football teams and a P.E. teacher. Donna Harrison, pictured at the bottom of the page, works this year as a Special Education instructor.

Staff Endures Students

Jan Follis, above, helps a student with the projector. Mrs. Follis is an instructor of Remedial Reading. Elizabeth Calhoun, bottom left, seems caught up in teaching in the academic life, as she reads to one of her English classes. She also teaches Social Studies. Below, Neil Pittman gives instruction to his History class. Mr. Pittman is also the baseball coach and assistant football coach.

Jr. High: a time of excitement, making friends, getting involved, and waiting in anticipation for the future. With activities such as football, basketball, Chorale, band, Student Council, cheerleading and Pep Club, Jr. High is a big step toward the long awaited High School. Jr. High, one of the most memorable times of "growing up" helps outline futures, build dreams, and shape individuals.

Somehow in these crowded halls, students find the time to exchange books, change classes, and visit with friends.

An Active Year for

1972-73 Jr. High Cheerleading Squad

The girls chosen to cheer for the Jr. High teams this year were: Captain Karla Yocum (8th) above, Kay French (7th) below, Lynette Pittman (8th) below center, and Leah Bennett (7th) below right. Besides cheering at all the Jr. High games this year, the squad held pep assemblies, sold spirit ribbons, and held a party at the end of the year honoring Coach Kassinger and the eighth grade team. Sponsoring the girls this year was Miss Pat Welch.

Student Body Vice-President Penny Cloud, President Mike Baumberger, and Secretary Lynette Pittman at left, and Student Council officers, below left, discuss the next project Student Council will undertake. One of the projects they sponsored this year was a Muscular Dystrophy drive for handicapped children. Lon Bennett, far below, is shown putting up a poster announcing the drive. Another project they worked on this year was selling spirit ribbons to pay for a radio recently installed in the new Jr. High cafeteria. Student Council officers, below, from top to bottom are: Mark Emery, Mike Hagewood, John McConnell, Leah Bennett, Carolyn Adams, Mark Lane, and Bill Wilkinson.

The 1972-73 Seventh Grade Football Squad.

The 1972-73 Eighth Grade Football Squad.

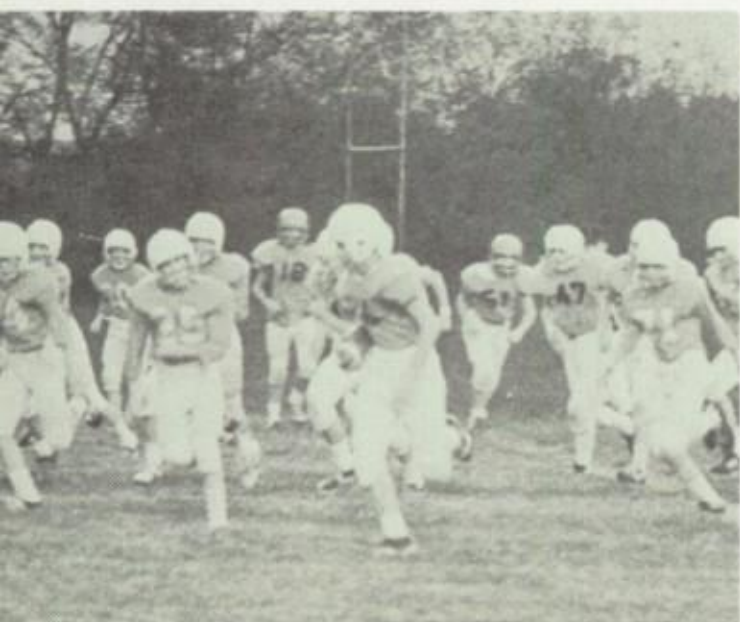

Speed, accuracy, courage, and skill joined forces to form this year's Junior High Football squad. Through hard work, determination, and a lot of practice, the seventh grade finished the season with a record of 3-3 and the eighth with a record of 5-1-1. Above right: A Tiger searches for an opening in the defensive line in order to gain some much needed yardage. At right: Caught in a blur of motion, a Tiger downs the Cassville ball carrier. Below: Arms go up as the Tigers score another touchdown against their opponent Greenwood.

Kathy Reigns in '73

As one of four candidates, Kathy Lawrence, a junior, was chosen by the student body to be the 1973 Basketball Sweetheart. Kathy reigned over the game against East Newton, and the following dance.

This year Kathy is co-captain of the varsity cheerleading squad, a member of French club, pep club, FTA, and Quill and Scroll.

Also caught up in the excitement of the night were candidates, Chris Gossett (freshman), Brenda Graf (sophomore), and Glenda DeWitt (senior).

At left we see Kathy's reaction to the announcement that SHE is queen.

KWTO Selects Sally

KWTO radio station chose Sally Engle as Miss Tigress 1973 from a field of four candidates. Each girl was required to write a resumé of her activities during high school. The summaries, along with a senior picture and a casual shot of each girl, were sent to KWTO. They were then voted on. The results were announced when Sally was crowned at the Miss Tigress dance on March 31.

Lee Hancock, Key Club President, starts to crown Sally as Rita Reynolds, Miss Tigress 1972, presents the new Miss Tigress with a dozen yellow roses, RIGHT. Lee then plants the traditional kiss. Below are pictured the other three candidates with their escorts: Glenda DeWitt and David Blackwell, Mary Ann O'Neal and Chuck McDaniel, and Beverly Rolufs and David Walker. Rock Road from St. Louis was featured from 8 p.m. until 11 p.m. The dance was co-sponsored by Key Club and Quill and Scroll.

Girls In Competition

Coaching the girls' basketball team this year was Cindy Evans, a graduate of RHS. Miss Evans attends Drury college and is majoring in physical education and special education.

Regional, for girls' basketball was held at Willard and the RHS team did well considering it was the first tournament of the year. They were victorious over Pleasant Hope in their first game, but were defeated when up against Nixa.

This year the team manager was freshman Robin Hunter.

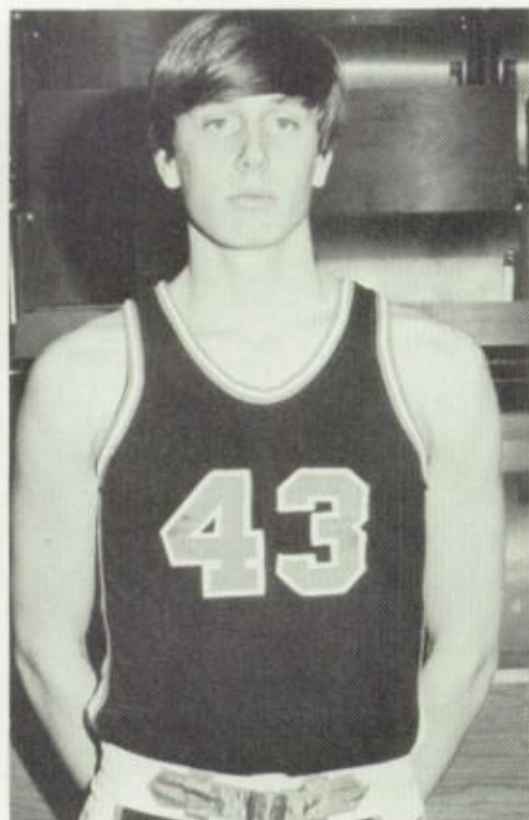

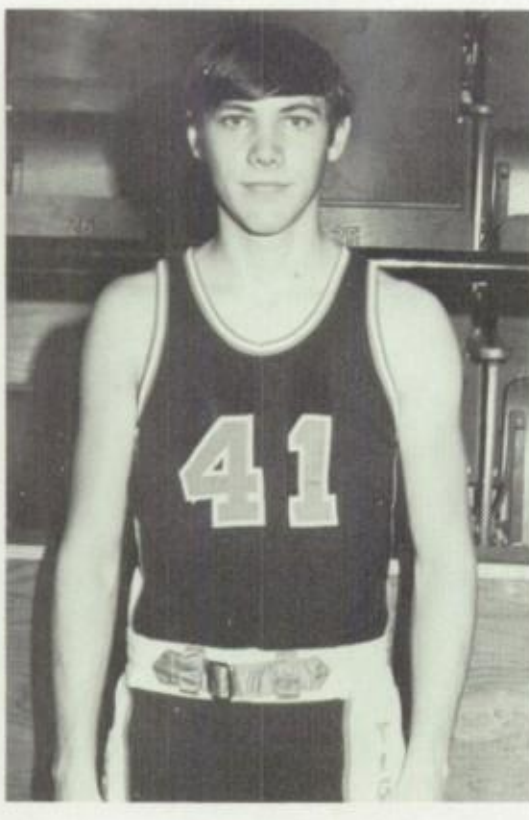

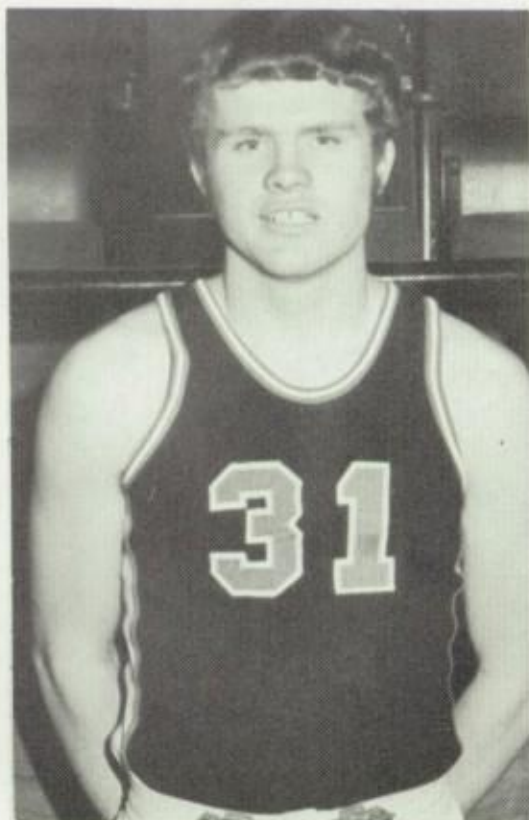

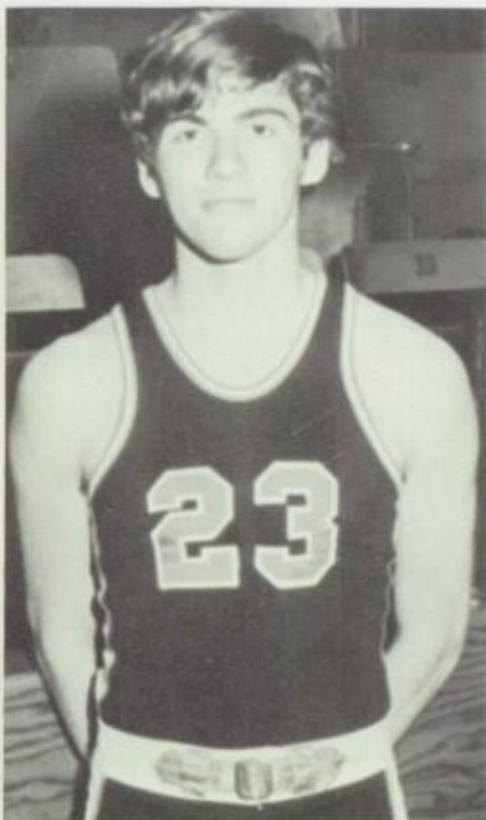

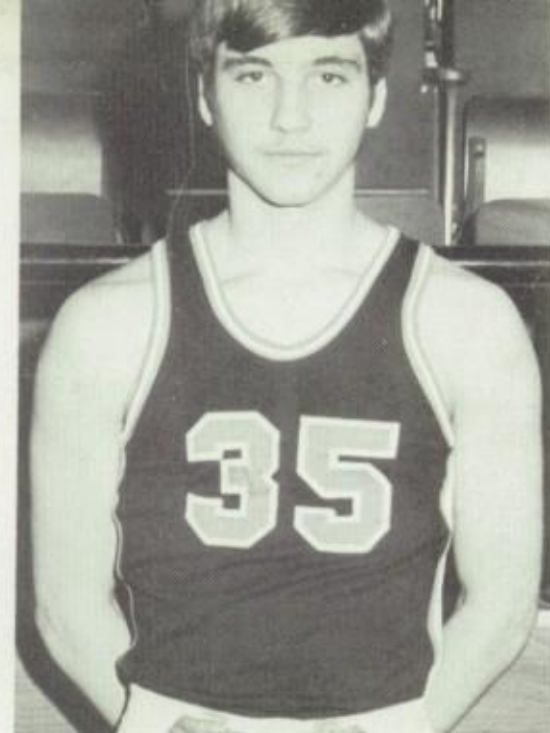

Tigers Take Central Ozark

The tigers for this year were back row: Coach Larry Carter, Mark Ruckman, Duane Harbough, Dave Blackwell, Lee Hancock, George Kelly, Larry Day, Steve Brown, Coach Mike Gammel. Front Row: Rick Patton (manager), Brad Coggin, Terry Owen, Harvey Newberry, Earl Anderson, Kevin Corner, Larry Chilton (manager). This year the Tigers finished the year on top of the Central Ozark Conference with an 11-3 record in conference, and 18-9 overall, they took second in their own conference by losing to Ozark by one point, fourth in the Nixa Tournament by beating Greenwood the first game and losing to Nixa and St. Agnes, they also took second in the Regional Tournament, by beating Willard, Ozark, and St. Agnes, then losing to Kickapoo in the last game. The teams top rebounder for the year was Dave Blackwell, averaging 13 a game, Larry Day had best free throw percentage with 74%. Republic had three all conference picks, Dave Blackwell (senior) and Larry Day (junior) were named to the first team, and Earl Anderson (senior) received honorable mention. The Senior Tigers were Dave Blackwell (35), George Kelly (23), Duane Harbough (53), Earl Anderson (31), Harvey Newberry (25), Terry Owens (41), and Lee Hancock (43). The scoreboard reads 67-54 after the game against Bolivar which shows the Republic team on top. This made a tie for the conference until Buffalo beat Ozark.

Living for Today, Hoping for Tomorrow

Student Council sponsored many activities this year. Plans and preparations are made for an upcoming dance (left), which turns out to be a big success (lower right). Being exact to the last penny can be a problem when you're handling over $1000 made from candy sales sponsored by the council (right). Trying for one more sale is Richard Wright (lower left).

Student Council . . . Working Together Toward One Goal

To have a successful Student Council, a school must have students who are willing to cooperate and work together toward a school-wide goal. This year the Student Council at Republic definitely proved itself worthy of these standards.

RHS Welcomes Maria Cruz

RHS was very fortunate this year to be able to have had visiting with them a Brazilian foreign exchange student, Maria Cruz.

During her stay with her host family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Boatright Maria became a part of RHS life. She lived, enjoyed, and studied as any other student.

We hope that Maria's visit in Republic will always be one of her most pleasant memories.

This years' Key Club has strived to help people. They've succeeded by doing such things as holding a turkey raffle and giving the proceeds to charity, and by sponsoring a spring dance and using the proceeds to help the foreign exchange student program. By achieving these things, the 1973 Key Club has been successful in providing a very important service, that of helping people.

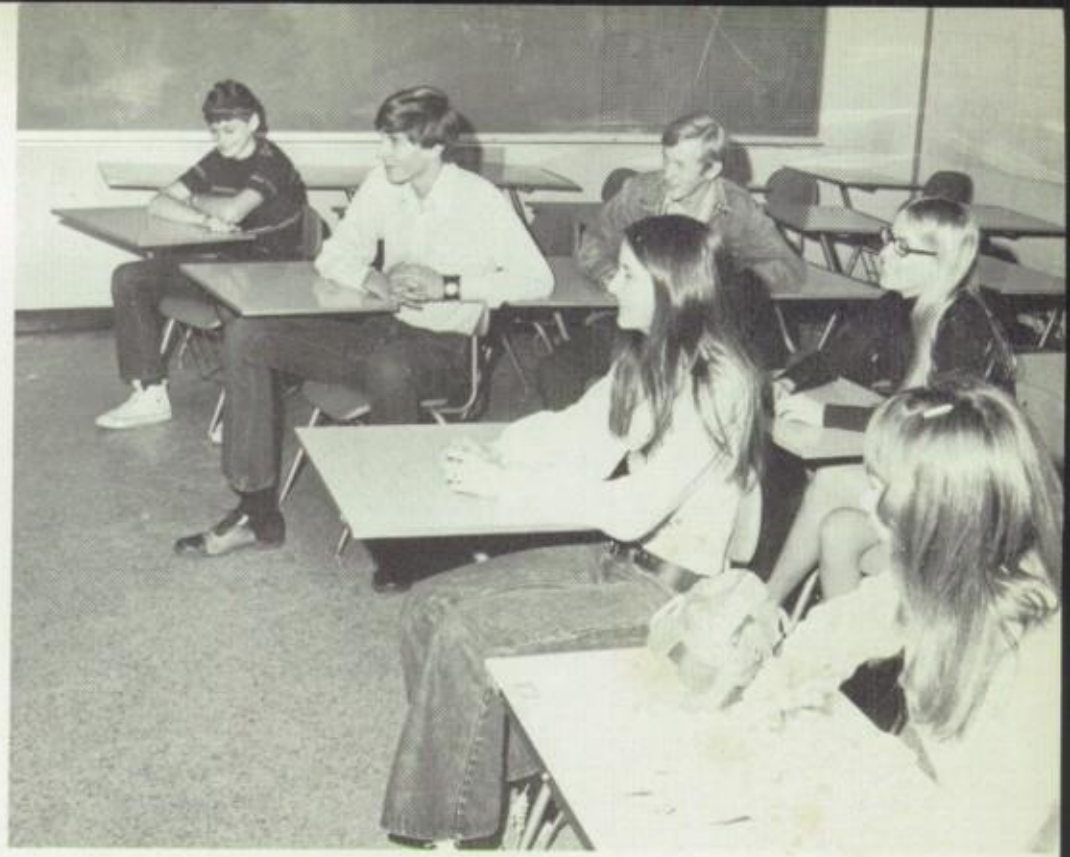

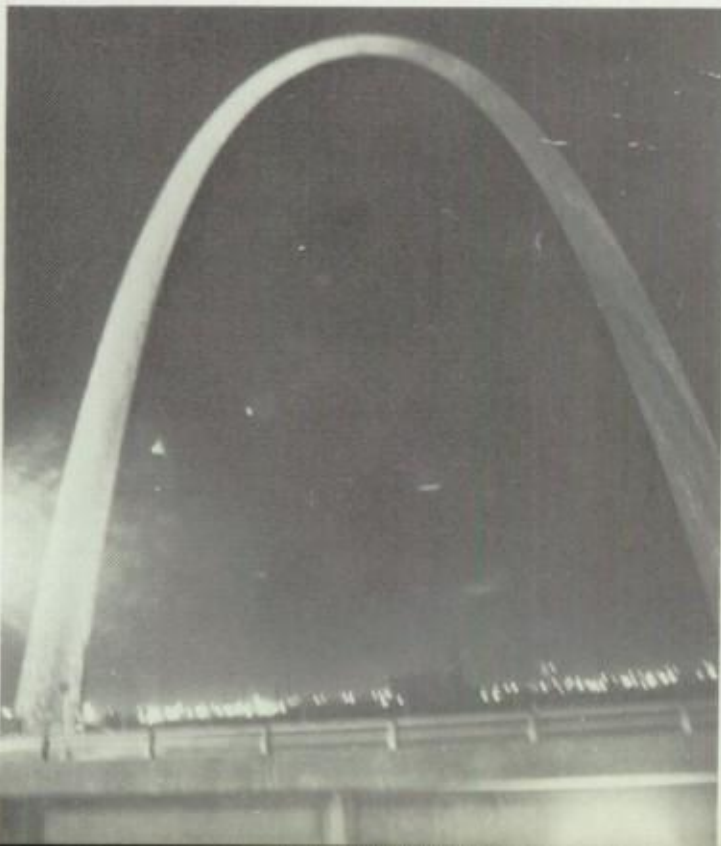

Fun Is . . . Photo Club!

Making pictures is fun whether it be for yourself or others or even the Repmo. This year, besides making pictures, the club held a hayride, visited a color-printing seminar, and are now planning a trip to St. Louis. The officers of Photography Club were Kent McPhail—president, Mike Cooper—vice-president, and Kerri Quessenberry—secretary.

Marching Band Improves In Parade and Football Shows

Mr. John Follis gives directions as Blake Simmons looks on; Blake a sophomore, was this year's Drum-Major. Many vigorous hours are put into the marching band's football shows. This year's pep band accompanied the football team and pep club to Bolivar. To compete in the year's many parades, the band spends many long hours in Republic's streets. The band competed in the SMS Homecoming Parade, Springfield Christmas Parade, and the Branson Christmas Parade.

Homecoming '72— Only a Memory

Smiles of a newly-crowned queen and her attendants warmed the chilly evening of October 6. Despite the disappointing 37-8 football game score, spirits—and appetites—ran high at the dance which followed the game. Rock Road, from St. Louis, was featured.

Earlier in the day, winners of the spirit contests were announced at the pep assembly. The homeroom decoration prize was awarded to Mr. Stephenson's anthropology class. Kim Hancock was crowned Mr. Cool.

Action Highlights Cage Activities

Homeroom floats, a spirited pep rally, and an exciting basketball game were just a few of the activities that highlighted the 1973 Basketball Festivities that took place February 9, 1973. The queen and her court were honored with a pom pom routine presented by the two cheer-leading squads, to the song, HEY, BIG BROTHER, during half time of the varsity game.

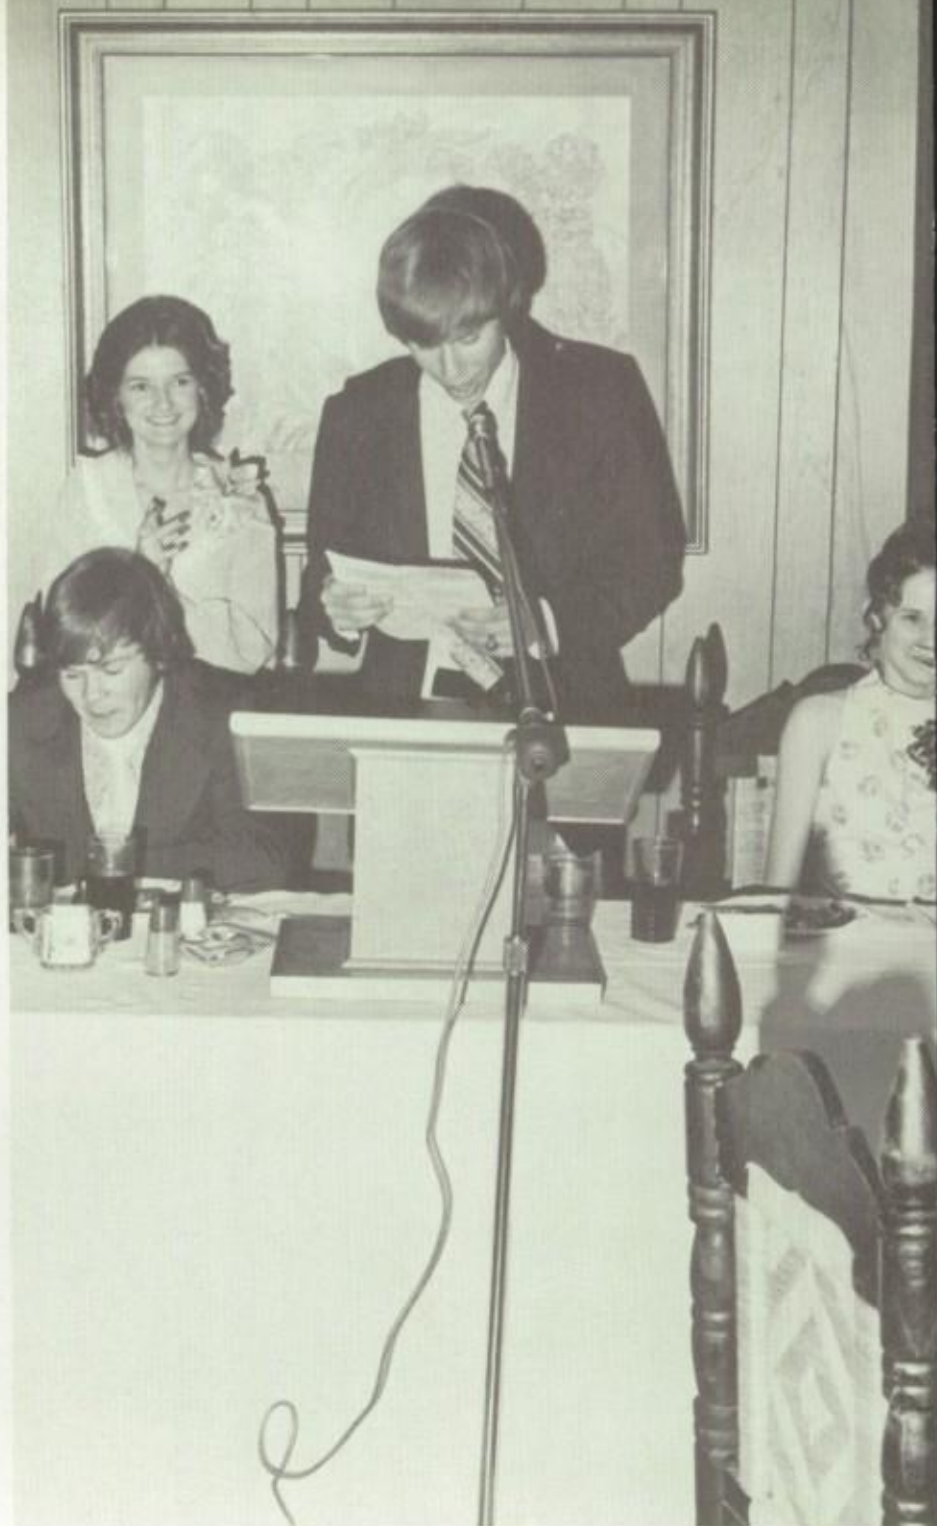

The defeat of the East Newton Patriots came as the buzzer sounded with the score 64-59. After the game, the masses of high school students and dates flocked to the Elementary building to dance to the sound of "Overflow".

To boost the spirit for the event, each homeroom built a mini-float. The winning float, made by Art I, was a giant fig, accompanied with a banner, "YOU'RE DARN TOOTIN' WE'RE GONNA BEAT EAST NEWTON."

Seniors and Juniors Share . . .

At right Becky Wilkinson and Kent McPhail read the Senior Wills. Seated are class presidents Christi Stark and Larry Mobley. Below Sheree Perkins, Brenda Gardner, and Bob Williams read the Senior Prophecies.

High Spirits and good music resulted in a filled dance floor.

Unfinished Memories

At left students and teachers enjoy a fine meal.

Music was provided by "Hangdog".

Will Mark Hetherington keep it up all night?

Mike Cooper, and Neil Ramsey

The night of May 5 was indeed memorable as the 1973 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was held at Riverside Inn. The Junior Class hosted the festivity which included a buffet-style meal and a dance.

Thespians Present Night of

The RHS Speech department started off their activities with three one-act plays. They were: THE GIMMICK, a comedy; WILL YOU JOIN ME FOR DINNER, a drama; and TRUE BLUE AND TRUSTED, a lighthearted melodrama.

One Acts

after being seduced by Maxine Mascarra (Brenda Gardner). Lower center: All ends well with Lily (Nancy Pipkin) and Balderdash being married after putting Gargle to a justified end. Attending the wedding are: Mom (Kim Clanton), and the Preacher (Joe Mandrino). Lower left: The three casts meet together for a final pep talk with Miss Gallion.

Spoon River Haunts

Chosen for the 1973 spring production, SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY, by Edgar Lee Masters, featured many interesting characters from the past; people who lived in and around fictional Spoon River. The scene changes were augmented with appropriate folk songs.

Most of the cast members played more than one role, with some of them doubling as actors and singers under the direction of Miss Debbie Gallion.

Clockwise: MARIE SADE depicts Lucinda Maylock. Balancing on foot occupies RUSS LAWTER. Soldier KENT McPHAIL is flanked by the crowd members JOANNA BILLINGSLEY, RUSS LAWTER, KATHY MALEY, GEORGIA JONES, and ROB BOYER. Setting the stage for character speeches are JOANNA BILLINGSLEY and BLAKE SIMMONS. RUSTY SWIFT, JAN OLMSTEAD, CATHY COONIS, JEANNIE GUSS, and TONI LOUDENBARGER provide the musical transitions. Not pictured is NOLAN GARRETT.

RHS

SPOON RIVER cast members include; Kathy Alderman, Joanna Billingsly, James Blanton, Rob Boyer, Kim Clanton, Glenda DeWitt, Sally Engle, Brenda Gardner, Georgia Jones, Russell Lawter, Kathy Maley, Kendall McPhail, Melody Parker, Sheree Perkins, Nancy Pipkin, Marie Sade, Blake Simmons and Lana Sparkman. Singers and musicians, some of which were also actors, were; Cathy Coonis, Nolan Garrett, Jeannie Guss, Toni Loudenbarger, Jan Olmstead, Rusty Swift, and Kim Wood.

Thespians Collect Honors

The year was full of rewards for the RHS Speech and Drama students. Right: "Hey, look at the rip in Donna's pants." Actually, this was the Honor assembly, and Donna had just received an acting award. Below right: Martha says, "Oh; . . . George stop that hamming." Well, really Kent McPhail is just trying to steal the show because he didn't get a trophy. Below: "Ooo . . . Sheree, what did you get this for???" Truthfully, Sheree got that award for going to State with her poetry.

3 Attend State Music Contest

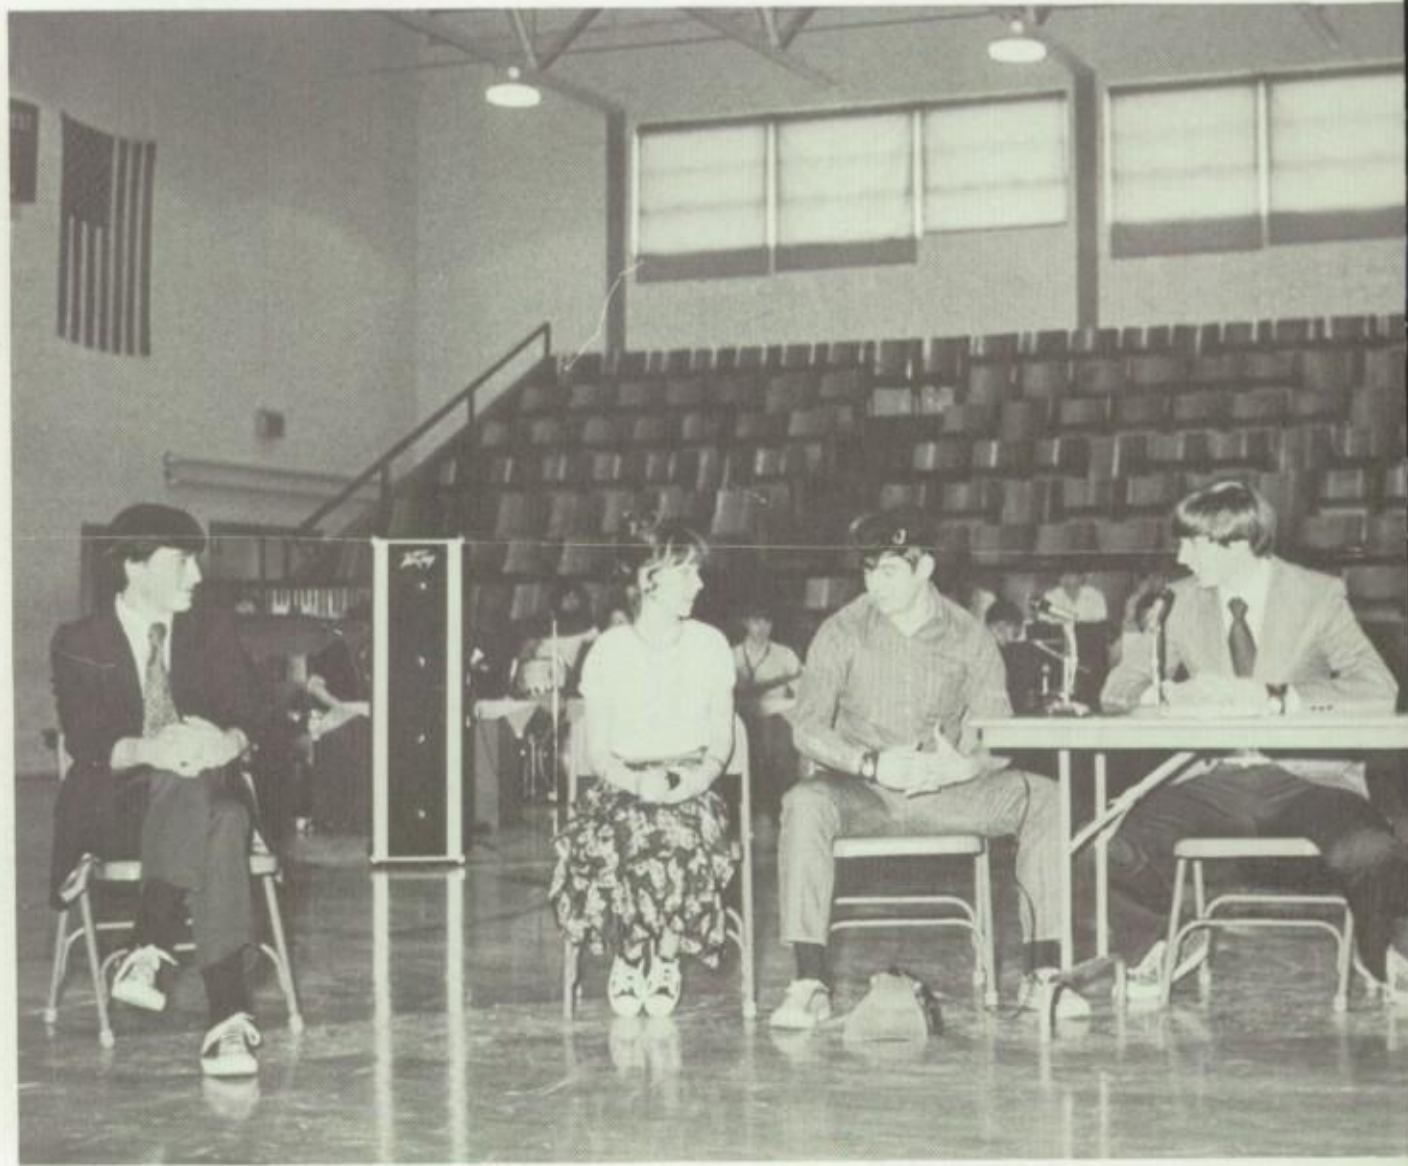

The Saxophone Quartet received a two rating at the State Music Contest in Columbia, Missouri, the group consists of Kent McPhail (sr.), Brad Coggin (fr.), Cathy Coonis (soph.), and Tom Burks (sr.); Carl Sifferman, a junior, was awarded a three at the contest; Sophomore Cathy Coonis was the only one of the three to receive the excellent rating of a one at state, which is a very high honor.

Honor Students Receive Awards

Pieces Of April

Organizing this year's fashion show were the officers and sponsor of F.H.A. Along with the fashion show, there was a musical presentation by the glee club and a gymnastics exhibition was presented by the P.E. Department. Appropriately, "Pieces of April" was the theme for the show. Over ninety girls modeled pantsuits, dresses, short outfits, formals, and even a wedding gown.

The Tournament of Knowledge team this year included members Melody Parker, Gary Etheridge, Shawn Salrin, and chairman Pam Goodall. Mrs. Judy Ray was sponsor for the team. The T of K games were played in Aurora and could be heard on station KSWM.

At left, the Tournament of Knowledge team members do research on various topics in preparation for the games. Above, Shawn Salrin and Gary Etheridge take time from their studies to clown around while Pam Goodall and Melody Parker look on. The Republic T of K team this year won their first game with Marionville but fell to Lockwood in the quarter finals.

from "Silence"

by Edgar Lee Masters

"I have known the silence of the stars and of the sea,
And the silence of the city when it pauses,
And the silence of a man and a maid,
And the silence for which music alone
finds the word,
And the silence of the sick
When their eyes roam about the room.
And I ask: For the depths,
Of what use is language?
A beast of the field moans a few times
When death takes its young:
And we are voiceless in the presence of realities—
We cannot speak."

It is true that often we can't speak the most appropriate words when confronted with real-life situations. For this reason, the school year which is represented in the pages of this book is not altogether accurate, nor altogether true; it can't be. We, this includes all the REPMO staff, have attempted to describe the indescribable, to express the inexpressible and to picture the unpicturable. Yet we hope these efforts will serve to evoke memories of times and places, events and people. If they accomplish this, then the REPMO truly is memories in bits and pieces—traces of our lives.

um, to a sweet girl whom I've known to long. (just kid)
REMEMBER this summer. All those guys that we used to come over. Oh yea, and the time we went up to the fire department. But good man, those were CRAZY times. I'd better quit before I write something I'm not suppose to. Don't forget those 2 on 1. Well gotta go. I write well guess I'd better quit before I write something I'm not suppose to. Don't forget those 2 on 1. Well gotta go. I write well guess I'd better quit before I write something I'm not suppose to. Don't forget those 2 on 1. Well gotta go.

Good luck with
